TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Woodlands Cemetery, on the west bank of the Schuylkill, embracing nearly eighty acres of land, is about a mile southwestward of the City of Philadelphia. Long the country seat of the Hamiltons, the natural advantages of the position were improved by the highest skill of the landscape gardener, munificently aided by the tasteful proprietors. The subsequent dilapidation of the buildings, and the scattering of a choice collection of exotic plants, have been more than compensated by the mature growth of the trees, of many varieties, which, singly and in masses, lend to the scenery and the grounds the most impressive effect. The vistas beneath the foliage, or between the separated groves, conduct the eye to distant prospects, varied on every hand and by every change of position : there the spires and public buildings of the city are beheld ; here the windings of the Schuylkill, and more distant the bright surface of the Delaware, and the blue line of New Jersey stretching along the horizon. These groves and those prospects will be sacredly preserved ; the buildings restored ; and the renewed cultivation of shrubs and flowers be permitted to shed a cheering influence in shaded or sunny lawns, and among the tombs. All that taste may suggest, or science demand, consistently with the solemn purpose of the place, will be added to the superior advantages already possessed.

In adapting the grounds to the purpose of a Cemetery every care has been taken harmoniously to unite simplicity of design and utility with the unmarred and effective scenery. The avenues for carriages, of easy grade, give convenient access to all the parts, and the footways conduct to every burial plot.

Here amid nature's beautiful works, embellished by taste, is offered the right of sepulture in perpetuity. Here in a dry and gravelly soil the decaying bodies of the dead may securely moulder into kindred dust, with an abundant vegetation and free winds to absorb and dissipate all noxious effluvia. Here, protected by the affectionate care of survivors and the guaranty of the law, may the grave "not undistinguished be," but, marked by partial friendship, repay visitation by salutary lessons to the human heart.

AN ACT

TO INCORPORATE

“THE WOODLANDS CEMETERY COMPANY

OF PHILADELPHIA.”

WHEREAS the practice of crowding the dead within small spaces in popular cities is repugnant to the feeling and prejudicial to the health of the living, and is becoming yearly more inconvenient, expensive and dangerous. And whereas, A number of citizens of this commonwealth hereinafter named have associated for the purpose of establishing a rural cemetery at the Woodlands in the neighbourhood of Philadelphia, intending to appropriate the greater portion thereof for the purpose of interments, whereby the beautiful landscape and scenery of that situation may be perpetually preserved, and its ample space for free circulation of air, and groves of trees afford a security against encroachments upon the dead, and health and solace to the living. And whereas, The said associators have petitioned to be incorporated with the necessary powers for effecting the important objects aforesaid. Therefore;

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That Charles J. Ingersoll, Benjamin Stiles, Thomas Mitchell, Henry Austie, John Lindsay, William E. Lehman, John V. Cowell, Andrew D. Cash, Robert Ewing, William H. Moore, Jacob Lex, Eli K. Price, Philip M. Price, Benjamin G. Mitchell, Charles F. Lex, Henry Leech and Garrick Mallery, be, and they and their successors are hereby made and created a body politic, and corporate in law under the name, style and title of "The Woodlands Cemetery Company of Philadelphia," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and be able and capable in law, to have and use a common seal, to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded in all courts of law and equity, and to do all such other things as are incident to a corporation.

SECTION 2. That the said corporators shall at least once in every year hereafter fill, by election by ballot, all vacancies which may occur among them, and may at the same time or at other times increase and add to their number from those who may be lot holders in the cemetery, so that the said company shall never be reduced to less than ten, nor exceed forty members, and they shall have full power to ordain, establish and put in execution all such by-laws, rules and regulations not contrary to the constitution and laws of the United States or of this State, which may be necessary for the proper government of this corporation, its officers and affairs, and until the election of managers, shall exercise all the powers thereof.

SECTION 3. That the said corporators shall at least once in every year, elect from their number seven Managers, one of whom shall be designated as President, and a Secretary and Treasurer, who shall make a report of their proceedings, and a statement of their finances, at the annual meetings of their corporators and as much oftener as may be required by a majority of them the said corporators.

SECTION 4. That the said corporators or managers shall have power to contract for and purchase from the owner or owners thereof, so much of the said Woodlands estate not exceeding seventy-five acres as they may think necessary for such cemetery, and the same to lay out and ornament and to divide and arrange into suitable plats and burial lots, remove or alter old and erect and build new buildings, and to do all other things proper and necessary to be done to adapt the said ground for the purpose of a cemetery, and to sell and dispose of such plats and burial lots in fee simple or otherwise for the purpose of sepulture to individuals, societies or congregations, without distinction or regard as to sect, under such conditions, rules, and regulations as the said corporators or managers may establish for the government of lot holders, visitors to the cemetery and burial of the dead.

SECTION 5. That the said Managers shall have power to appoint all other officers, agents and workmen, which may be needful and fix their compensation or wages, and the same to discharge at pleasure, to take from the Treasurer security for the faithful performance of his trusts and to discharge him from his office upon occasion therefor; and they the said managers shall keep fair minutes of all their acts and doings.

SECTION 6. That the said company shall be capable of holding so much personal property as may be necessary for the purpose of this incorporation, and it shall be the duty of the managers out of the proceeds of the sale of burial lots to create a fund to be invested in ground-rents or mortgages, the income whereof shall be of adequate amount, and applied as may be necessary for the improvement and perpetual maintenance of the cemetery in proper order and security; and at least ten per cent of the purchase money of all burial lots sold, shall be set aside for said improvements and the creation of said perpetual fund, and any failure in the duties aforesaid, shall subject said managers or corporation to the control of the competent judicial authority for correction.

SECTION 7. That forasmuch as humanity and a decent respect for the dead, and the feelings of the survivors, require that the graves of the deceased should never be violated, nor families separated in their last resting place, no public street, road, or passage shall ever be opened through the said cemetery without the consent of the said corporation under their common seal.

AN ACT

RELATING TO "THE WOODLANDS CEMETERY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c. That if any person shall open any tomb or grave in the lands of the Cemetery of "The Woodlands Cemetery Company" of Philadelphia, and clandestinely remove or attempt to remove any body or remains therefrom, such person upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to undergo an imprisonment, in the prison of the County of Philadelphia at hard labour, for a term not less than one or more than five years, and pay a fine not less than five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the Court of Quarter Sessions for the County of Philadelphia; and any person who shall wilfully destroy, mutilate, deface, injure or remove any tomb, monument, grave-stone or other structure placed in the Cemetery aforesaid, or any fence or railing, or other work for the protection or ornament of said Cemetery, or of any tomb, monument, grave-stone, or other structure placed therein as aforesaid, or shall wilfully destroy, cut, break or remove any tree, shrub or plant within the limits of said Cemetery, or shall shoot or discharge any gun or other fire-arms within said limits, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace or alderman of the County of Philadelphia, be punished by a fine at the discretion of the justice or alderman, according to the aggravation of the offence, of not less than five, nor more than fifty dollars; or shall on conviction thereof in the Court of Quarter Sessions of said County, be punished by a fine as aforesaid, and by imprisonment according to the aggravation of the offence, at the discretion of the Court, for a term of not less than six months, or more than three years.

SECTION 2. That every lot in the said Cemetery of "The Woodlands Cemetery Company" of Philadelphia, shall be held by the proprietor for the purpose of sepulture alone, transferable with the consent of the President and Managers thereof, and shall not be subject to attachment or execution; and the said Cemetery shall hereafter be forever exempted from taxation: PROVIDED, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed to exempt the said Cemetery from payment of state taxes:

AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the said exemption from attachment and execution, shall not extend to more than four lots held or owned by any one person in the said Cemetery.

APPROVED, MARCH 15, 1847.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. All the ground between Lehman street and Woodlands street, not exceeding 75 acres, dedicated to be a cemetery, under the act of incorporation of "The Woodlands Cemetery Company of Philadelphia," shall be laid out under the direction of the Board of Managers into suitable burial lots, and intersected by a convenient number of carriage and footways, which shall not be changed or obstructed by the owners of lots, but with the consent of the Board of Managers under their corporate seal.

2. The holders of burial lots, may ornament their lots with flowers and shrubbery, and enclose the same with chains or railing, not exceeding four feet in height, the gates of which shall open into the lots; but shall not remove any trees without the express permission of the managers in writing, and attested by the secretary; and shall do nothing which they can avoid to the injury of the neighboring or other lots of the Cemetery.

3. All graves and vaults shall be dug at least six inches within the lines of the several lots, and under the supervision of the Superintendent of the Cemetery. No vault shall be constructed, or mound raised more than 18 inches above the surface of the ground without the written permission of the managers. Nor shall any monument, construction or inscription, offensive to decency or propriety, be placed on any lot; and if so constructed or placed thereon, the same may be removed by the managers at the cost of the person so violating this rule.

4. All materials for constructing vaults, graves, or enclosures, and rubbish consequent thereon, shall be conveyed to and removed from the ground upon hand barrows or vehicles with broad wheels ; and all vaults and graves shall be dug by workmen in the employment of the company, for which the most reasonable and fair charges will be made ; the charge for digging the grave, and for making up and sodding the same, must be paid to the Treasurer at the time for receiving the permit for interment.

5. No interment shall take place without a written permit from the Treasurer, for which he shall receive at the time 50 cents. No corpse shall remain in the receiving vault or tomb longer than ten days without charge ; if longer than that, the person leaving it shall be subject to a charge of 50 cents for each and every day beyond ten days and at the expiration of ten days the body may be buried in the section for Individual Interments at the expense of the party procuring the permit. On the granting of every permit to place a body in the Receiving vault, Ten dollars and fifty cents shall be paid to cover the expense of interment in the Individual burial ground, in case it shall not be removed within the ten days, and if so removed the surplus over the ordinary burial charges, shall be refunded.

6. No sale or transfer of a burial lot or right of interment, by the original or any subsequent owner thereof, shall be valid without the permission and approval of the managers, duly attested by the Treasurer, an entry whereof shall be made on the books of the company, and on payment of ten per cent of the purchase money on each transfer to the Treasurer, to be applied to the improvement fund : Provided it shall never be less than 50 cents a square foot. And no lot-holder shall demand or receive, or suffer or permit to be demanded or received, any compensation whatever for interments therein. No permit will be granted to purchasers from others than the Company, until the ten per cent be paid for the improvement fund. All transfers by will, descent, or of the mere legal title, where one has bought in trust for another, shall not be subject to the ten per cent charge. When two or more persons make an exchange of ground, only one charge of ten per cent shall be made, so far as the exchange is of equivalent value. It is the duty of the officers of the Company to refuse an approval of every transfer of lots made at a less price than fifty cents a square foot without the previous resolution of the Board of Managers, and also to refuse the approval of the transfer of shares where they shall be made for the purpose of taking the ground allowed to be taken thereon and to be reconveyed to the party transferring or to any one for him or subject to his order.

7. In order to guard against all compulsory sales of burial lots, every grant shall convey only the right of interment to the purchaser thereof and his heirs at common law, or devisees, subject to the rules and regulations of the Cemetery Company. And no right or privilege of burial shall be derived by any compulsory sale or transfer to any purchaser; and no lot shall be divisible into smaller portions than as originally laid down upon the plan of the Cemetery, by assignment, will or otherwise, unless with the consent of the managers in writing, under their corporate seal duly attested: Provided however, that a lot-holder may by will bequeath his lot to his children in common or in parts, as he may think proper, and to their heirs and assigns: And provided further, in default of a devisee, or known kindred, lots shall revert to the corporation, and be so preserved as not to disturb the remains of any person buried therein.

8. No transfer or sale of lots in the Cemetery made by auction will be sanctioned by the Board of Managers.

9. No person taking more than one lot from the Company, shall obtain a greater front on any avenue, than he shall take in depth therefrom.

10. No sign or notice offering lots for sale at a less rate than that fixed by the Company shall be allowed to be put up, nor shall the Superintendent assist in any respect those who may be engaged in selling or purchasing lots in violation of this regulation of the Company.

11. All admissions to the Cemetery by visitors, shall be subject to the observance of such rules and instructions, as the Superintendent will be charged with from time to time by the managers.

12. The gates of the Cemetery shall be closed on Sundays against all persons not producing tickets and exhibiting them at the gates before entering. Tickets may be had at the Office of the Company.

13. The Lots and graves shall be kept in order by the Superintendent only, and all plantings shall be done under his direction.

14. The Treasurer shall keep correct account of all moneys received by him, and disbursed by order of the Managers, and shall give security, to the satisfaction of the Board of Managers, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. All money received by him shall be deposited in such bank, or other place as the Managers may direct, and drawn by his check, countersigned by the President, or any President pro tem. for the time being.

15. The Secretary shall keep correct minutes of the proceedings of the Managers—a register of all sales and transfer of stocks and burial lots—a register of all burials, showing the exact spot where interred ; and if attainable, the name, age, birth-place and residence, and the disease of which the deceased died—a book of original contracts and agreements made with persons employed in and about the Cemetery, and an account of moneys received and paid on account of the same—and such other duties as may from time to time be required of him by the Managers—all which minutes, registers, books and accounts, as well as the books and accounts of the Treasurer, shall be at all times accessible to the Managers.

16. The Managers reserve the right to remove or trim any trees which they may think obstruct, or mar the general effect and beauty of the scenery, or may otherwise prove injurious or dangerous.

17. A stated meeting of the Managers shall be held on the first Tuesday in every month; and special meetings whenever called by order of the President, or two Managers; and four members shall be a quorum to transact business.

18. That the annual election of Managers shall take place at a stated meeting of the corporators to be held on the first Saturday in each year, at the office of the Secretary, at 7½ o'clock, in the evening, or at such other place as the Board of Managers shall designate, at least one month before such stated meeting; and in default of such election the former Managers shall continue in office until an election takes place at a meeting duly convened.

19. That special meetings of the corporators may be called by the Secretary or the Managers whenever ordered by the President, or two Managers, or four Corporators; and notice of such meeting shall be written or printed and served at least forty-eight hours before the meeting by a messenger or through the Post Office, directed to the residence or place of business of the corporators; and in case of the absence of a corporator, without a known agent in the State, he shall be considered as having waived his right to have notice until his return.

20. At corporate meetings one third of the whole number of the corporators shall constitute a quorum, provided that such quorum shall not be less than seven corporators.

21. That in case of any vacancy occurring in the Board of Managers, or of any office, such vacancy shall be filled by the Board of Managers until the next annual election.

22. Owners of Lots are permitted to prepare their own Deeds in the form adopted by the Company, provided that the Deed shall be produced to the Treasurer for his signature and for registry, for which a fee of fifty cents shall be paid, beside the acknowledgment.
